

Dr. William S. McClinton Ed.D. MBA

Dr. William S. McClinton, is a 20 year veteran of the United States Navy. He is the President and CEO of McClinton life Sciences Inc. (MLS) a company specializing in distribution and supply chain logistics of packaging components and medical laboratory supplies. MLS also specializes in the distribution of chemicals used in the development and manufacturing of medical supplies, personal care products, biotechnology and pharmaceuticals.

Prior to starting MLS, William had a stellar career in Pharmaceutical Bio-medical sales. He was an award winning Executive Sales Professional and Cardiovascular District Sales Manager with Sanofi-Aventis & Schering Plough Pharmaceuticals, where he was in charge of day-to-day sales operations for the Chicago South Territory which covered 3 states.

Dr. McClinton is an Adjunct Professor at the Roosevelt University Heller School of Business where he teaches multiple Graduate level business courses. He is also a past Board of Education President for Matteson IL, School District 159.

William holds a Doctoral degree in Social Entrepreneurship and a Master's in Business Administration, with minors in Organizational Leadership and Human Resources from Governors State University. He also holds a Masters and Bachelorette degree in Education from Southern Illinois University with minors in Workforce Education and Curriculum Development.

Dr. McClinton is a true professional who has the innate ability to motivate, train and inspire.